

Advanced Grammar
Adverb Clauses Exercises

Name:

Date:

I. Complete the following sentences using a logical adverb clause. Note that you have different types of adverb clauses.

1. _____, you may be too tired to recall much of what you studied the night before.

2. _____, the family might consider spending some time in Athens before going to Rome.

3. _____, you get a printout of the courses you have taken and the ones that you need to take.

4. _____, any part of the body that comes in contact with insecticide should be washed immediately.

5. _____, Dr. Wilson sends a letter to his patients urging a cholesterol and triglyceride check for themselves and their children.

II. Complete the following sentences with a Noun Clause. Use the words below:

when where whether if why

1. I don't know _____.

2. The advisor informed me _____.

3. _____, it is not my determination since she will have to make her own decision.

4. The nurse asked the patient _____.

5. The students wondered _____.

III Complete the following sentences with an adverb clause.
Use the words below:

when where whether or not if because

1. We saw many emergencies brought in _____.
2. _____, I would have seen the specialist.
3. They went _____.
4. _____, they had to give him general anesthesia.
5. For such a delicate operation, they'll give him general anesthesia _____.

Myra M. Medina
Miami Dade College