

Possible Problems with Adjective Clauses

Be careful for the following common problems with adjective clauses.

1. An adjective clause must be together with another complete sentence. There need to be 2 subjects and 2 verbs.

- | | |
|------|--|
| NO: | My friend who lives in Dallas. |
| YES: | My friend who lives in Dallas will visit me soon |
| YES: | My friend lives in Dallas. |

|------|--|
| NO: | The girl whose sister is a singer. |
| YES: | The girl whose sister is a singer got us some free tickets to the concert. |
| YES: | The girl's sister is a singer. |

2. The adjective clause must have a subject and a complete verb.

- | | |
|------|---|
| NO: | Edmonds Community College, which located in the US, has a lot of international students. |
| YES: | Edmonds Community College, which is located in the US, has a lot of international students. |
- | | |
|------|---|
| NO: | My teacher is very funny makes a lot of jokes in class. |
| YES: | My teacher who is very funny makes a lot of jokes in class. |

3. You cannot use an adjective clause to describe a pronoun (he, she, him, her etc.) (except for some special expressions).

- | | |
|------|---|
| NO: | She who comes from Japan is my roommate. |
| YES: | The girl who comes from Japan is my roommate. |
-
- | | |
|------|--|
| NO: | I'll give back the book to him who is in my grammar class. |
| YES: | I'll give the book to the guy who is in my grammar class. |

4. Do not repeat a pronoun with an adjective clause.

- | | |
|------|--|
| NO: | The new book which I read it was very interesting. |
| YES: | The new book which I read was very interesting. |

5. The adjective clause must be just after the noun it describes.

- | | |
|------|--|
| NO: | I went to San Francisco to visit my aunt and uncle where I used to live. |
| YES: | I went to San Francisco, where I used to live, to visit my aunt and uncle. |

6. If you are describing something very simple, especially using one adjective, it is usually better to put the adjective in front of the word.

- | | |
|------|--|
| NO: | The dress, which is green, is very expensive. |
| YES: | The green dress is very expensive.
(It is better style to use a simple sentence.) |
