

Recognizing and Understanding Adjective Clauses Whose

Part A. Directions: Find and underline the five adjective clauses in the paragraph below. The first one is already done.

Mark Zuckerberg, whose name most people recognize, is one of the most successful businessmen in the world. In 2004, he created Facebook, whose popularity continues to grow. There are currently over 1 billion Facebook users. These users, whose posts include articles, messages, and photos, can even access Facebook from their phones. Although Facebook accounts are free, the company earns money from advertisers. In fact, Facebook earns a lot of money and Mark Zuckerberg has become very wealthy. Zuckerberg and his wife, whose name is Priscilla Chan, have donated millions of dollars to charity. The charities support education, health, and science. Zuckerberg and Chan will continue to make donations to these charities, whose help many people need.

Part B. Directions: Change each of the underlined sentences from the paragraph above into two separate sentences. The first one is already done.

1. Mark Zuckerberg is one of the most successful businessmen in the world. Most people recognize his name.

2.

3.

4.

5.