

What Does Ginny Have?

Using have/has, fill in the blanks with the correct form.

It is Thanksgiving and Ginny (1)_____ a lot of work. She (2)_____ invited her relatives to (3)_____ dinner at her house. I (4)_____ to help her because she needs to do many things. First, we (5)_____ to go to the airport to pick up her parents. They are coming from Idaho and (6)_____ decided to stay at Ginny's house. Ginny's brother, his wife, and children are also coming to stay at her house. But Ginny doesn't (7)_____ enough beds for them, so she (8)_____ to borrow a sleeping bag from me in which she will sleep. As well, Ginny doesn't (9)_____ enough chairs for all her guests, so I (10)_____ let her use some folding chairs that I (11)_____. Back at the house from the airport, Ginny starts cooking, but realizes that she (12)_____ to buy bread, cranberry sauce, and stuffing for dinner. She and I get in the car again and go to the supermarket to buy what she needs. At the checkout line, she tells me to run and get a few cans of sweet yams, which I do. When the cashier rings everything up and tells Ginny the total, Ginny realizes that she doesn't (13)_____ her wallet with her. Poor Ginny, I think she (14)_____ too many things to do.

Myra M. Medina
Miami Dade College