

Additional Practice with the Present Progressive

I. Change the sentences to questions.

1. The student is holding his grammar book.

2. Renee, the baby, is sneezing.

3. We are writing a composition.

4. Mary is sitting in the classroom.

5. John is reading a novel about life in England in 1603.

6. You are sleeping in class.

7. I am chewing gum.

8. Jane is standing on a chair.

9. An airplane is flying across the sky.

10. She is cutting the cake.

11. Anthony is holding his wig for the play.

12. They are playing our favorite song on the radio.

13. Ray is buying many airplane parts from Andy.

Myra M. Medina
Miami Dade College