

Changing Past Tense Affirmative to Negative

Directions: Change the past tense affirmative sentences to negative.

The Changing Economy

1. Five years ago, I began working in the aviation industry.

---

---

2. The United States created two million jobs in the last few years.

---

---

3. Other nations invested their money in the United States.

---

---

4. Companies wrote software in India and sent it to the US.

---

---

5. Administrative support jobs moved overseas.

---

---

6. Other nations continued to have lower wages.

---

---

7. Many other countries built their innovative capacity.

---

---

8. Low paying corporations created many more jobs than high paying jobs.

---

---

9. Many companies spent more money and time in litigation procedures.

---

---

10. Everyone agreed on the changes the country needs to make.

---

---

11. The country faced serious economic problems.

---

Myra M. Medina
Miami Dade College