

Worksheet 8. There is / are

Read the passages about Hal and Helga. Then circle T for True or F for False for each item.

 My name is Hal. My office is not neat. In fact, it is the opposite of neat: it is messy. There are papers everywhere: there are papers on my desk, in the wastebasket, and on the floor. In fact, there are papers all around me.	 My name is Helga. My office is neat now. All my papers are in a neat pile, one on top of another. There are 100 papers in my out-box and there aren't any papers in my in-box. There aren't any papers in the wastebasket, and there aren't any papers on the floor.
T/ F 1. Hal's office is neat. T/ F 2. There are two lamps on the desk. T/ F 3. There's a computer under the papers. T/ F 4. There are papers around the wastebasket. T/ F 5. The papers are in a neat pile on the desk.	T/ F 6. Helga's office is neat. T/ F 7. The papers are everywhere. T/ F 8. The in-box is full. T/ F 9. The out-box is full. T/ F 10. The papers are in a neat pile on the desk. T/ F 11. Helga is organized.