

Adjective Clauses

Combine the two sentences with an adjective clause using the relative pronoun given.

1. The green sunglasses are on the table. They belong to Ms. Rice.
Which _____
2. Jacky travels continuously. Her name is on the book.
Whose _____
3. Many people watched the presidential speech. They did not watch
American Idol.
Who _____
4. The story about a man being robbed in the subway was not true. Milena told us that story.
That _____
5. The story about the fire was in the paper. It was in a nightclub.
Which _____
6. The man lit the fire. He will serve at least 10 years.
Who _____
7. Turin is a city in Italy. The 2006 Winter Olympics were held there.
Where _____
8. Athens and Barcelona have held Olympic games. These are other European cities.
Which _____
9. Most Americans are concerned about nutrition. They usually read food labels.
That _____
10. I read the food label to Mary. She believes food labels are a good source of information.
To whom _____

Myra M. Medina, 2006
Miami Dade College

