

Worksheet 8. Vocabulary practice

Circle the letter of the sentence that means the same as the first sentence.

1. The book costs $24.97, tax and shipping included.
 - a. The book costs $24.97, plus tax and shipping.
 - b. The book costs $24.97; tax and shipping have already been added.
 - c. The book costs $24.97; there is no tax and no shipping charge.

2. On a typical weekend, we eat out with a group of friends.
 - a. On weekends, we usually eat in a restaurant with our friends.
 - b. We like to stay home all weekend.
 - c. We never go out at all.

3. Natalie is a guide at the art museum.
 - a. Natalie is a security guard at the museum.
 - b. Natalie sells tickets at the entrance of the museum.
 - c. Natalie tells the museum visitors about the art in the museum.

4. We'd like a double room, please.
 - a. We'd like two rooms.
 - b. We'd like a room for two people.
 - c. We'd like a room at half-price.

5. This is a diverse, cosmopolitan city; all sorts of people live here.
 - a. People who live here are all of the same kind.
 - b. There are many different kinds of people who live in this city.
 - c. People in this city live in separate groups.

6. Sanjay felt so bad about losing his job that he literally became sick.
 - a. Sanjay was really sick.
 - b. Sanjay was not actually sick.
 - c. Sanjay lost his job because he was sick.

7. The Princess Hotel provides cable TV, but you have to pay for movies.
 - a. The cost of movies is included.
 - b. You can't watch movies in your room at the Princess Hotel.
 - c. You get cable TV at the Princess Hotel, but movies cost extra.

8. Jack is a cyclist; he's in a difficult training program.
 - a. Jack is a cycling guide.
 - b. Jack likes adventure.
 - c. Jack is trying to be an excellent cyclist.

